NOTICE.

BACTERIAL RING-ROT REGULATIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given that, under the provisions of section 3 of the "Plant Protection Act," being chapter 217, R.S.B.C. 1936, the Bacterial Ring-rot Regulations made by Order in Council No. 1633, approved the 26th day of November, 1942, have been rescinded, and that the following regulations have been approved by Order in Council No. 1777, dated December 29th, 1942.

1. These regulations may be cited as the "Bacterial Ring-rot Regulations."

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Act" shall mean the "Plant Protection Act," being chapter 217 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936";

"Imported potatoes" shall mean all potatoes grown outside the Province;

"Importer" includes the person to whom potatoes grown outside the Province are consigned and any person who exercises acts of ownership over potatoes imported into the Province:

"Inspector" means an Inspector appointed under the Act:

"Minister" means Minister of Agriculture of the Province.

3. No person shall sell or have in his possession for sale within the Province any imported potatoes unless such potatoes have been inspected and released by an Inspector as being apparently free from bacterial ring-rot.

4. Any Inspector may inspect any imported potatoes in transit or at point of destination.

5. Every importer of potatoes shall notify the Inspector in charge of inspection in any area as to the time of arrival at point of destination of any imported potatoes and the place where inspection may be made.

6. Every importer shall, after having notified the Inspector as to the arrival of potatoes at point of destination, make such potatoes accessible for inspection and shall so place them as to disclose their quality and condition.

7. Where potatoes are found which, in the opinion of the Inspector, are infected with bacterial ring-rot, the Inspector shall place such potatoes under detention.

8. Any Inspector detaining under Regulation No. 7 any lot of potatoes may at any time and at any place attach thereto a number detention-tag bearing the legend "'Bacterial Ring-rot Regulations,' under detention," and signed with the Inspector's name. Thenceforth no person shall sell or offer for sale, move, allow or cause to be moved any such potatoes or remove such detention-tag without the written authority of an Inspector.

9. The Inspector shall, as soon as possible after placing such detention-tag on the potatoes, notify the importer and shall cause the said potatoes to be examined by a Plant Pathologist selected by the Minister.

10. When the findings of the Plant Pathologist indicate that potatoes are infected with bacterial ring-rot the Inspector shall so advise the importer, and thereupon the importer shall cause such potatoes to be moved to a manufacturing plant or otherwise disposed of as the Inspector may direct, and the Inspector may give directions to the importer, dealer, or ultimate consignee as to the treatment of the containers and equipment used in the handling and transporting of the potatoes.

11. Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations or who fails to comply with any direction of the Inspector made pursuant to Regulation No. 8 shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars ($250).

K. C. MACDONALD,
Minister of Agriculture.

Subject to the "Engineering Profession Act," to manufacture, assemble, and distribute mining, milling, dredging, cannery, and other machinery, and generally to carry on the business of mechanical engineers, machinists, boiler-makers, blacksmiths, iron and brass foundries, and pattern-makers in all branches:

(d.) Subject to the "Engineering Profession Act," to carry on in all or any of their respective branches the businesses of founders and engineers, and any business incidental thereto:

(e.) To act as agents and importers for the sale of metals, boilers, machinery, and engineering supplies of all kinds:

(f.) To carry on the business of machinists, welders, smiths, metal-workers, and dealers in iron, steel, brass, wood, or other suitable materials of any compositions:

(g.) To carry on the business of mechanical and marine engineers, subject to the "Engineering Profession Act," and the manufacture of agricultural implements, logging tools, mining equipment, marine boilers, engines, or marine equipment and machinery, and all other kinds of machinery:

(h.) Subject to the "Engineering Profession Act," to carry on the business of tool-makers, boiler-makers, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smiths, woodworkers, builders, painters, marine engineers, electrical engineers, carriers, and merchants, and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in machinery, implements of all kinds, and to carry on the business of electrical engineers, and contractors and dealers in electrical, magnetic, galvanic, and other apparatus, and as mechanical engineers, suppliers of light, heat, sound, and power by means of electricity, and all manner of things useful or incidental to such purposes:

(i.) To carry on the business of shipping, and to purchase, charter, hire, build, repair, operate, mortgage, lease, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire and deal in ships, steam-boats, Diesel tug-boats, barges, scows, tugs, tug-boats, and other vessels or ships or water-craft of any nature whatsoever, including all equipment and personal property used in connection therewith, or shares or interest therein, and to maintain, repair, improve, alter, sell, exchange, or let out to hire or charter, or otherwise deal with or dispose of any ships, steam-boats, Diesel tug-boats, barges, scows, tugs, tug-boats, and other vessels or ships and water-craft for shares or securities as aforesaid:

(j.) To build ships, steam-boats, Diesel tug-boats, barges, scows, tugs, tug-boats, and other vessels or ships or water-craft of any nature whatsoever, including all tools, equipment, and accessories used in connection therewith:

(k.) To operate ships, steam-boats, Diesel tug-boats, barges, scows, tugs, tug-boats, and other vessels or ships or water-craft in the conveyance of passengers, mail, lumber, logs, booms, boom-chains, and merchandise of all kinds, excluding lines of steam or other ships operating to any point outside of or extending beyond the limits of the Province of British Columbia, or between the Province of British Columbia and any other British or foreign country:

(l.) To generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity for heat, light, and power in connection with this Company's works and operations, and to dispose of electricity for profit for public or private purposes, and to deal generally in electrical appliances:

(m.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and hold any lands, rights-of-way, shops, factories, yards, buildings, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, and other real and personal property, and to equip, operate, use, and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sub-let, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(n.) To construct, acquire, improve, maintain, equip, alter, work, operate, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, marine railways, water-powers, reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, mines, tramways, logging-railways operated by steam, electricity, or other mechanical power, telephone-lines, electric-supply lines, bridges, foreshore rights, water privileges, docks, piers, wharves, booms, timber-slides, booming-grounds, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, electric works, houses, shops, hotels, stores, buildings, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance this Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though undertaken, constructed, or maintained by any other person or company:

(o.) To conduct, maintain, and operate wharves and piers for the purpose of shipping and transportation; to receive goods as wharfingers, warehousemen, and carriers:

(p.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, coal lands, mineral claims, mineral leases, coal-mines, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, surface rights and rights of way, water rights, water records and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sub-let, contract for treatment of the products of or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of them, or any interest therein:

(q.) To enter into any agreement with the Provincial or Dominion Government, or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) which may seem conducive to this Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(r.) To enter into any agreement for the supplying of goods or services with the Department of Munitions and Supply of the Government of the Dominion of Canada or with any other department or with any agency thereof:

(s.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares of stock, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other corporation or company; and, on the security of the property of the Company, to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any corporation or company any of whose shares of stock, bonds, debentures, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness are held by the Company, and to guarantee the payment of dividends on any shares of the capital stock of any such corporation or company:

(t.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
